

Miguel A. Arraez, MD, PhD.

Birthplace: Almería, Spain. Residency in Neurological Surgery finished in 1988 (Virgen de las Nieves University Hospital, Granada, Spain). Chairman of the Department of Neurosurgery at Carlos Haya University Hospital. Professor of Neurosurgery at Malaga University. Academic activity in the board of several international neurosurgical journals (Neurosurgery, Neurosurgical Review, World Neurosurgery, Neurocirugia, Journal of International Neurosciences, Gliomat Journal, Journal of International Neurosciences). He has served in several neurosurgical organizations (World Federation of Neurosurgical Societies, World Academy of Neurological Surgeons, Spanish Society of Neurosurgery, Spanish Skull Base Society). Currently is President of the Spanish Society of Neurosurgery, Chairman of the WFNS Foundation and Secretary of the World Academy of Neurosurgery. Contributions to national and international congresses, peer-reviewed articles and also chapter and edition of books. Visiting Professorship at several international institutions in Europe and USA. Fields of interest: Skull base, pituitary surgery, brainstem tumors, neuro-oncology.